Arashiyama

Arashiyama is notable for its view of cherry blossoms, Autumn leaves and the bridge "Togetsukyo", which spans across Katsura river and one of the landmark of Arashiyama. The most highly recommended spot is the Sagano Bamboo Forest! It is a pleasantly cool 100m long walkway that begins from the side of the world heritage Tenryuji Temple. The Nonomiya Shrine is also well known for its oldest Kuroki Torii (Made of unbarked tree) spotted in the bamboo forest. The large "Okame-Ishi" rock is a famous power spot, and is said your wish will come true within a year if you rub the rock.

※Admission Fee: Free

Nara Park

Nara Park is notorious for the 1200 or so wild deers that live freely within the park. Deer crackers are for sale around the park. Some deer have learned how to bow to visitors to ask to be fed. Deer can get aggressive if they think you will feed them. Therefore, make sure not to tease them with food. Within Nara Park, you'll find Todai-ji Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Sites and a landmark of Nara.

※Todai-ji Temple Admission Fee: Adult 600yen Child 300yen

Kobe MOSAIC

Kobe MOSAIC is a shopping mall which is located on the port of Kobe. There are roughly 80 restaurants, and shops selling fashion goods and souvenirs of Kobe. There is a Ferris wheel at Mosaic Garden near the port of Kobe. You can feel and enjoy Kobe city here.
