<< Points of Tour Interest >>

Fushimi Inari Taisha

Fushimi Inari Taisha is the head shrine for some 30,000 Inari shrines across the country. It is especially famous for its seemingly endless vermillion torii (1,000 shrine gates). Since old days, Fushimi-Inari has been well-known as a guardian deity of agriculture. It is also famous for prosperity in business and family security.

※Admission: Free

Kiyomizudera (UNESCO World Cultural Heritage)

Kiyomizudera (the temple of clear water) was named after Otowa Waterfall which is said to be good for your longevity, health, and study if you drink. This temple is famous for the cherry blossoms in spring and fall foliage in autumn.

※Admission Fee: Adult 400yen Child 200yen

Kinkakuji (UNESCO World Cultural Heritage)

Kinkaku, a pagoda made to house the sacred relics of the Buddha, has given this temple the popular name of Kinkaku-ji (Temple of the Golden Pavilion). But the official name of this branch temple of the Rinzai sect Zen temple of Shōkoku-ji is Rokuon-ji.

Arashiyama

Arashiyama is notable for its view of cherry blossoms, Autumn leaves and the bridge "Togetsukyo", which spans across Katsura river and one of the landmark of Arashiyama. The most highly recommended spot is the Sagano Bamboo Forest!
